Discussions, Dialogue & Debate

Our events provide a forum for debate on the brand and communications issues that organisations face in different sectors. The format is relaxed: We provide opening thoughts to a group of like-minded people, then we chat about it.

Brand management in a fluid environment

Thursday 7 March - 5pm

Change is the new constant in so many respects, and technology is just one of them. So how do you manage your brand in an environment that's ever changing and how do you future proof it, when anything is possible?

Employer brand: the good bad and the ugly (re-run)

Wednesday 10 July - 5pm

Whether you call it your employer brand or simply what your brand means for your people, there's no question that getting it right is key. So who's doing it well, who's not quite hitting the mark and what lessons can we learn from them?

Employer brand: the good bad and the ugly

Thursday 2 May - 5pm

Whether you call it your employer brand or simply what your brand means for your people, there's no question that getting it right is key. So who's doing it well, who's not quite hitting the mark and what lessons can we learn from them?

Employer brand: Cutting through the clutter

Thursday 10 October - 5pm

Creating a brand that attracts and retains talent and helps people understand what's expected of them, and what they should expect in return, is essential. Doing so with stand-out, coherence and continuity is key to ensure your people not only get it but know that your business is serious about it.

Professional services: Branding in a partnership structure

Thursday 13 June - 5pm

With an unclear future and the need for greater purpose, professional services companies have an opportunity to be clear about the role they play. But how do you create one aligned view and ensure the brand reflects the quality on the inside, where many have a controlling interest?

Marketing communications: making the complex simple

Thursday 14 November - 5pm

The world of B2B marketing is different. You spend so much time navigating the complexities, it's all too easy to reflect the intricacy on the inside, when you market it to the outside world. So how do you focus your marketing communications on the core messages that really matter?
